To everyone who managed me over the years, as challenging as that was on many occasions, your patience and leadership have influenced my professional path and personal growth.

To my loving and talented wife, Iryna: Your deep understanding and boundless support have been the foundation of my strength. The love and encouragement you provide form the bedrock of my endeavors. It is your steadfast belief in me that made this book possible.

To my ancestors and parents (rest in peace), my sisters and brother, my supportive family, and my beautiful children.

Most importantly, I extend my deepest gratitude to God and the Universe for blessing me with life and giving me the necessary tools and resources to live and thrive.
